PRANG WAR PICTURES.

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE has ordered several thousand of these famous war pictures. The two that we are able to supply first are the Siege of Vicksburg and the Battle of Spotsylvania. These will be mailed at once to those ordering them.

These famous war pictures are so well known to our subscribers that it is unnecessary to describe them except briefly. They are reproduced in the original colors. These are large pictures, 15 x 22 inches, and would make a splendid addition to the collection of any Grand Army Post or any home.

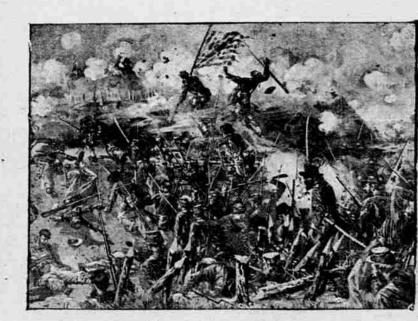

BATTLE OF SPOTSYLVANIA. Reproduced in 18 colors,

SPOTSYLVANIA.

The fight at the Bloody Angle, in Spotsylvania, was one of the fiercest, if not the fiercest, in the history of war in any country. For hours the Union and Confederate forces were engaged in a close, deadly, and intensely sanguinary struggle, which left the ground heaped with slain. It was in this engagement that occurred the famous incident of a large tree being shot off by musketry fire, showing the volume and deadliness of the fire which the opponents poured into one another. The picture is a fine portrayal of the fight at its hottest,

BATTLE OF VICKSBURG. Reproduced in 18 colors

Size, 15 by 22 inches,

VICKSBURG.

The assault on Fort Hill, at Vicksburg, was one of the thrilling episodes of that great achievement. It was largely a hand-to-hand fight in the midst of the roar of cannon along the whole line, the bursting of shells, the fierce whiz of canister and the steady crash of musketry. The fighting was so close that hand grenades, bayonets, gun barrels and swords were in almost constant use. The picture represents the planting of the colors upon the enemy's works, and gives hint of the immortal struggle around them.
